

Pre-survey PARTICIPANTS Creative_Science_Questionnaire

Dear Student,

Thank you for taking part in this study. Your name will never be used with any of your answers. We have only asked for your name so that we can match up all of your writing. Or we have done that, we will erase your name. Remember that this is not a test. The only "right" answer is what you think.

1. Please write your full name in the space below (this will be erased later for your privacy)

Type here

2. Please specify your gender.

Male  Female  Other, please specify...   I would rather not say

For the next three questions imagine you are writing a story with two main characters who are students around your age.

3. Character 'A' is the best science student in the school. Write a description of what this character might be like. For example, how does this student act? What does this student like to do? How is this student different from other students?

Type here

4. Character B is the best student in the school in everything creative. Write a description of what this character might be like. For example, how does this student act? What does this student like to do? How is this student different from other students?

Type here

5. In what ways do you think you are similar to or different from these characters?

Type here

Thank you for your time!
